

FOR THE WAR CRIMES OFFICE

Judge Advocate General's Department - War Department

United States of America

In the matter of the use of prisoners of war on enemy military installations at Kiangway Camp #2, POW Camp, outside of Shanghai, China, from January, 1944 to May, 1945.

Perpetuation of Testimony of Darrell Milton Beeson
Sgt. USMC 278470, 721 Valley,
Carthage, Missouri.

Taken at: Circuit Court Room, Joplin County Court House, Carthage, Missouri.

Date: 7 January 1946.

In the Presence of: Ralph H. Duggins, Agent SIC, Intelligence Branch, Kansas City, Missouri.

Questions by: Ralph H. Duggins, Agent SIC, Intelligence Branch, Kansas City, Missouri

Q. State your name, rank, serial number and permanent home address?

A. My name is Darrell Milton Beeson, Cpl., USMC 278470, and my permanent home address is 721 Valley, Carthage, Missouri.

Q. Are you an American citizen?

A. Yes.

Q. How old are you?

A. I was born 6 January 1921 at Nevada, Missouri.

Q. What was the extent of your education?

A. I had an eighth grade education.

Q. What was your occupation before your entrance into the Marine Corps?

A. I was an oil station attendant and was in the ice business. I enlisted in the Marine Corps on 7 December 1939.

Q. What was your last assignment in the Marine Corps prior to your capture?

A. I was assigned to the Embassy Guard, Peking, China, at the time I was captured.

Q. Were you ever a prisoner of war?

A. Yes. I was captured at Peking, China, on 8 December 1941.

Q. State the approximate dates and places you were held by the Japanese?

A. I was captured 8 December 1941, at the Embassy, Peking, China, and liberated 16 September 1945, at Hakodate, Branch Camp #2. From 8 December 1941, to 10 January 1942, we were held in our barracks at Tientsin, China. We left there 27 January 1942, and arrived at Shanghai, on 1 February 1942, and transferred to the Wongsung Camp, Shanghai, China, Prisoner Camp, Field Office 166. We stayed in this camp until approximately 6 December 1942. We were then taken to Kiangwang, which was still called the Shanghai Prisoner of War Camp. From 6 December 1942, to May 1945, we were prisoners at the Shanghai Prisoner of War Camp. During the four or five days in May 1945, we travelled to Fengtai (phonetic) by boxcar, outside of Peking, China, which was a railroad division point. We remained in this locality for one month and left the last of June 1945. We travelled by boxcar through Manchuria and Korea to Fusan, Korea. We remained in Fusan for one week, crossed the straits by boat to a small village close to Naga (phonetic). We boarded a train on the evening of 3 July 1945. We were taken to Tokyo, Yokohama, and to a small port on northern Honshu. We landed at Hakodate and boarded a train to the central part of Hokkaido. We remained there thirty days during which time I worked in the mines of Akabura (phonetic). We were liberated one month later at Branch Camp #2 and taken by train from Akabura (phonetic) to the Chotice Airport and flown by plane to Tokyo, and then to Yokohama, and by boat to Guam, and by boat to the United States, landing at San Francisco on 11 October 1945.

Q. Are you acquainted with the circumstances concerning the use of prisoners on enemy military installations at Kiangwang Camp #2, PW Camp, outside of Shanghai, China?

A. Yes, I am.

Q. State of your own knowledge any information regarding the incident.

A. At the Shanghai Prisoner of War Camp from January 1944 to the time we left Shanghai, on various and many occasions we were forced to bury oil and gas drums in the ground adjacent to the Shanghai race track in Shanghai. This was due to the numerous bombing raids which the Japanese were undergoing at that time. Quite frequently we were forced to dig holes placing the drums for protection, and then a short time later removing these drums and burying them in other localities.

Q. Is there any further information you have concerning this incident?

A. No, I have stated all that I can recall about it.
